I'd like to consider partnerships with business &/or community groups to generate investment.

I'd also like to see a 'friends of' the school from the community to help support the school.

Current school doesn't reflect the needs & wants of the community.

Can we consider a model other than public/private?
Why not have parents make voluntary contributions?

co-ed
With so many strong local (a well supported by community) local primary schools a co-ed public school is surely needed for these children.
Obv. the support for co-ed public education exists in Beaumaris & nearby suburbs.
